

Elevating Legal Excellence

Ruberry Stalmack & Garvey, LLC is a law firm with a proven track record of delivering exceptional results. Clients turn to us when they need litigators with actual and in-depth trial experience who are prepared to vigorously fight for their interests and, if necessary, take cases to trial for resolution.

We serve a diverse clientele, including entrepreneurs, startups, corporate leaders, directors and officers, and policyholders. Our nationwide caseload ranges from complex commercial disputes and SEC matters to class actions, contentious M&A transactions, SPAC litigation, and employment covenant issues.

Beyond our litigation practice, we provide strategic counsel to numerous boards of directors and C-suite officers, assisting them in navigating complex matters, such as fiduciary duties and competition covenants in executive and director agreements. No matter the challenge, we are dedicated to crafting innovative legal theories and strategies to secure exceptional outcomes for our clients.
